stated that retirement in April 1973 will create a serious financial hard- ship for her since her dependent son will, at that time, be completing his last year of college, and she has recently undergone a period of extensive and expensive hospitalization in connection with major surgery, for which she had outstanding expenses.
25X1A9A The Director of Finance stated that, although work is of high quality, she is not irreplaceable since there are other personnel available who are qualified to perform her duties in an equally satisfactor	V 25X1A9A manner. D/Fin also stated that he could not contend that	, retention would not block the progression of other employees, however, a one-year postponement of her retirement would have minimum impact on other personnel. D/Fin concluded that he could find no operational basis for justifying a recommendation that her request be approved, however, should a deferment be granted on compassionate grounds, he would be pleased to accommodate her continued employment through April 1974.
The Deputy Director for Support concurred in the position stated by D/Fin	•
Board Recommendation:
In discussing this request the Board noted that according to Mrs.
25X1A9A memorandum her son will complete his last year of college in 1973 The Board also noted that of her claimed medical expenses for the year	•
1971 and for January 1972, which totaled $13,072.00, her hospitalization paid $12,699.00, therefore, the total cost to her was $373.00. Based upon these facts the Board recommended that
